DIFFICULT ARREST.—A few days since Mr. W. C. Owens, a constable of Barnwell County, went to Beaufort armed with the proper papers to ar-rest a negro named Francis Williamson, who was charged with larceny. The Sheriff there delivered the negro up to the constable, and he, with his prisoner, returned here day before yesterday and lodged him in the guardhouse for safekeep-ing. The prisoner was discharged, and yesterday, went to Mugistrate Mishaw, colored, and sued out a warrant for the arrest of the constable, whom he asserted had beaten and falsely impris-oned him. In green coats were no the only males who took part in the proceedings  $\lambda$  bright clear day and a pleasant breeze added a cest to the out-door sports, and the shooting was better than the Platz had seen for many years

At the annual festival held last May, the club found that they had an embarras de richesses, for there were more prizes than could be competed for. A second festival was held, but som a tidrd some time in October, when the prizes on hand would be finally distributed. Both active and passive members were invited yesterday, and the best shots of the club were in attendance The shooting was infinitely superior to that o last May, as the best score made then was ex celled by the worst sportsman on the ground. Eight prizes were contested for at the ring tar-get and ten at the centre target; 292 ring and 236 centre shots being scored. The best shot at each target was made by our neighbor, Torck, whos reputation as a sharpshooter is unequalica, an who has never missed a bulls-eye.
